

Eva Churchill, LICSW

Eva Churchill, LICSW is an executive coach and psychotherapist in private practice. She is also a seasoned facilitator and teacher. She is the former Manager of Clinical Services for Corporate Family Network, an international EAP, where she worked with numerous leadership teams.

Ms. Churchill's successful approach to executive coaching combines her clinical expertise with organizational development and behavioral change techniques.

Ms. Churchill began working in the field of outplacement and change management in 2001. She has a broad range of experience, including Human Resource consultation, executive career coaching and vocational education. Ms. Churchill also has extensive experience in the field of mental health. She has worked in community mental health, chemical dependency treatment and crisis intervention.

Ms. Churchill is currently a doctoral candidate in clinical social work at Smith College. She earned her Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy from Barnard College and a Master's degree in Clinical Social Work from New York University.