

HEATHER MAGUIRE, PSY.D.

Heather Maguire, Psy.D., is an assistant professor in the Department of School Counseling and School Psychology within the School of Education. She also serves as program coordinator for the Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) Certificate program. The BCBA program equips educators to become professionals who utilize the science of applied behavior analysis (ABA) to decrease challenging behavior and teach adaptive skills to individuals with disabilities. In addition to her work at APU, Heather maintains a private practice assessing young children, providing behavior consultation to families, and providing supervision to behavior analysts in training.
